Two 5-drawer dressers with translucent panels. Holds a lot of stuff. Natural wood face, sides and top. Drawers slide easily and have stops to prevent pulling too far. About $149 each originally. Of course these are fully assembled, which took quite a few hours, considering that each drawer required a separate operation – something you will not have to do.

Goose-neck reading lamp, fully equipped with a mini-florescent, low-energy bulb (worth about 50 CZK itself). Originally about $20.
